

Statement of Lauren Kim
Candidate for Steering Committee
Early Career Lawyers Community

Lauren Kim promises to work to preserve the Community as strong and independent, with key decisions being made by Bar members with relevant expertise. She is experienced in program planning and writing projects. She strongly supports the Bar's legal assistance missions. She is a tax and international disputes lawyer, currently working for Grant Thornton Advisors LLC's national practice. Previously, she worked for one of the Big Four accounting firm's national practice. She holds a B.A. in International Relations from University of Minnesota, Twin Cities, a J.D. in The George Washington University Law School, and a Tax LL.M. from Georgetown University Law Center. It would be a privilege to have the opportunity to continue supporting this Community's cutting-edge programming and other work.
