

Candidate Statement

Laura seeks re-election to the ABA House of Delegates to promote our community's interests on the rule of law, access to justice, and diversity in the profession. An experienced leader in the D.C. legal community, she has served as President of the Women's Bar Association, D.C. Bar Treasurer, a two-term member of the Board of Governors, Chair of the Council on Sections and on several D.C. Bar committees. Laura is currently Chair of the Perspectives Editorial Board for the ABA Commission on Women in the Profession and the ABA Science & Technology Law Section Vice Chair. An advocate for innovative affordable legal services, she is on the DC Refers board and has volunteered with Washington Area Lawyers for the Arts for 25 years. Laura is Vice President of Business Affairs, Assistant General Counsel for the Corporation for Public Broadcasting and a graduate of Georgetown Law and the University of Pennsylvania.