

Statement of Austin Ownbey
Candidate for Steering Committee
Antitrust and Consumer Law Community

Dear D.C. Bar Members,

I ask for your support to re-elect me to the Steering Committee of the Antitrust and Consumer Law Community.

I began my journey in antitrust as a paralegal at Cleary Gottlieb before getting my law degree at the University of Michigan Law School. After law school, I worked for the California Attorney General, in the Antitrust Law Section, the Federal Trade Commission, in the San Francisco office, and in private practice since 2015.

If re-elected, I will draw upon my previous D.C. Bar volunteer service as a steering committee member of both the Antitrust and Consumer Law Community and the District of Columbia Affairs Community. In particular, I will continue to pursue opportunities for programming co-sponsored with other communities and generating other useful content for our community's members.

Thank you very much for your support and your vote.
