

Statement of Lahdan Rahmati
Candidate for Steering Committee
Corporation, Finance & Securities Law Community

DISCLAIMER: The U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) disclaims responsibility for any private publication or statement of any SEC employee or Commissioner. This content is posted in my personal capacity, expresses my personal views and does not necessarily reflect the views of the SEC, the Commissioners or other members of the Staff.

My role as Special Counsel at the SEC is integral to safeguarding investor interests. My team and I navigate the complexities of federal securities laws, providing information and resolving intricate issues. We are committed to excellence and proactively approach investor complaints and the strategic development of recommendations to various issues. Specializing in legal analysis and compliance, we ensure that the SEC's guidance aligns with legal, regulatory, and administrative mandates, empowering investors with clarity and confidence. I look forward to contributing value to the Steering Committee as a Member, if selected. Thank you.
