

Statement of Zain Walker
Candidate for Steering Committee
Early Career Lawyers Community

As a new D.C. resident and one of the newest members of the Bar, I'm honored for the opportunity to serve the Early Career Lawyers Community as a member of the steering committee. Last year, I graduated from Northeastern University School of Law and currently serve the District as a law clerk for the Senior Judges at the D.C. Court of Appeals. As a new attorney myself, I know firsthand what kind of events, resources, and information are helpful and desired by early career lawyers. With this perspective, combined with my experience coordinating events with my law school's chapter of the American Constitution Society and the Student Bar Association's Barristers' Ball Planning Committee, I will help organize informative, engaging, and thought-provoking events for our community. I will also involve the broader community in event planning, regularly seeking input and soliciting feedback so we can continuously improve our offerings.
