

Statement of Rami Rashmawi
Candidate for Steering Committee
Antitrust and Consumer Law Community

My name is Rami and I believe I would be a strong addition to the Steering Committee of the D.C. Bar's Antitrust and Consumer Law Community based on: (1) my experience as an associate representing clients across a variety of antitrust practices; (2) my experience on committees for other bar associations such as the ABA Antitrust Section; and (3) my desire to promote the practice of antitrust law in the legal field and to the broader public. I have the skills and substantive knowledge to assist the Antitrust and Consumer Law Community in achieving its goals.
