

Candidate Statement

Lorie Masters handles all aspects of litigation and arbitration, recovering during her career billions of dollars of insurance for policyholders. Lorie has served in the American Bar Association's House of Delegates, as a member of the ABA Board of Governors (2016-2019) and DC Bar Delegate (2020-2022). She has served as an Officer in the ABA Section of Litigation, and now co-chairs the Section's Federal Practice Task Force. She chaired the DC Bar's Litigation Section, and served on the DC Bar's Board of Governors and DC Bar Foundation. She served as President of the Women's Bar Association of DC and organized its Initiative for Advancement of Women's Diversity Summit in 2008. She represents survivors of human trafficking, policyholders denied healthcare coverage, and advocates for DC democracy pro bono. She has served on (among others) the boards of DC Vote, DC Appleseed, and chairs the Board of the Human Trafficking Legal Center.
