The 6 Predominant Lawyer Personality Traits

From the research of Larry Richard, Ph.D.

Small firm lawyers need high EQ
(emotional intelligence)

What does high EQ look like?

High EQ Qualities

You are optimistic.

You are not a perfectionist.

You can balance work and play.

You embrace change.

You are not easily distracted.

You are empathetic.

You know your strengths & weaknesses.

You are self-motivated.

You don't dwell in the past.

You take care of yourself.

You set boundaries.

*A person with EQ
understands this truth:*

You cannot impact a feeling with a fact.

You can only impact a feeling with another feeling.

The small firm focus

When we are licensed to solve the problems of others, it is best that our focus be narrow.

There is less challenge and risk
in a narrowly focused small firm.

We are expert & efficient at solving our client's problem.

Our marketing initiative is better directed and more successful.

Necessary skills

Active listener

Ability to negotiate

Effective writer

Good speaker

Ability to adapt

Quick study

Solution oriented

We are regulated

We must comply with the DC Rules of Professional Conduct;

And the rules of any other jurisdiction where we are barred;

And other codes, regulations and court rules;

And not become paralyzed by regulation.

Click here for free, confidential, informal ethics advice

We are DC Rule focused here

If you practice in another jurisdiction,
it may be different there.

For example:

DC Rule 7.1 & 7.5 – marketing

DC Rule 1.8(d)(1) & (2) – client financial help

DC Rule 5.4(b) – non-lawyer equity partner

DC Rule 1.6 – confidences & secrets

Getting started

What's the problem you solve?

Why should a prospective client bring you into their life?

What are the skill sets you need to attract and solve the problem of your ideal client?

Are these the same skill sets?

Using Firm is acceptable Ethics Opinion 332

Be cautious of and test drive the unique name

Unique name example: Ipseity Law

Ipseity, from the Latin word ipse, meaning “itself”

*“Ipseity reminds me of my core self,
the me beneath all layers of adaptation & personality, and that’s why I choose Ipeity Law for the

Do you need an office in DC?

DC Rules do not require it

Be careful about an office in a jurisdiction

ABA Legal Ethics Opinion 495

Lawyers Working Remotely - 12/16/20

“The Committee’s opinion is that, in the absence of a local jurisdiction’s finding that the activity constitutes the unauthorized practice of law, a lawyer may practice the law authorized by the lawyer’s licensing jurisdiction for clients of that jurisdiction, while physically located in a jurisdiction where the lawyer is not licensed if the lawyer does not hold out the lawyer’s presence or availability to perform legal services in the local jurisdiction or actually provide legal services for matters subject to the local jurisdiction, unless otherwise authorized.”

Incorporating profit

$160.00 + $90 profit = $250.00 hourly rate

$250.00 X 3 productive hours a day = $750.00

$750.00 X 5 days = $3750.00

$3750.00 X 50 weeks = $187,500.00

$187,500 - $120,000 = $67,500.00 profit

Hourly rate calculator

Revenue – Expense = Profit

When the small firm does not intend to profit,
it is simply surfing cash flow.

Here is how to know when you are profiting:

Total Fixed Cost / (Market Price – Cost) = Matters needed to break even

$5000 Fixed Cost (month) / ($1000 - $750) = 20 matters a month to break even

$$\text{Revenue} - \text{Expense} = \text{Profit}$$

Compare to a firm with more margin in the formula

$$\begin{aligned} &$5000 \text{ Fixed Cost (month)} / ($2500 - $750) = 3 \\ &\text{matters a month to break even} \end{aligned}$$

It asks this question regardless of the nature of the complaint:

D. Do you have a written retainer agreement with the attorney? If yes, please attach a copy.

There is no exception in Rule 1.5 for a client who is pro bono, court appointed, friend or family

Small firm bank accounts

- The firm's business account (operating account)
- DC IOLTA, assuming there are IOLTA eligible funds
- Trust Account for a single client or case, assuming the need exists

What goes where?

If you have done the work and earned the money, it goes into the business or operating account.

When it is an advance fee, when you are paid before you have done the work, when you have not yet earned the money, it goes into the IOLTA, assuming it is nominal in amount or going to be held for a short time.

Elements of good trust account management:

A ledger for each account;

Advance fees (flat, fixed or hourly) are entrusted (DC IOLTA);

Keep a client ledger for each client's money held in trust;

Include a summary of a client's trust funds in the invoice;

Use the three-way trust account reconciliation spreadsheet.

e-Manual, Chapter 5, Trust Accounting

Use the DC IOLTA Registration Form to open an IOLTA at an IOLTA compliant bank

Most advance fees are IOLTA eligible because they will not earn net interest for the client

Name your IOLTA properly (Rule 1.15\(b\)) Example:

Daniel M. Mills Lawyer DC IOLTA, or

The Mills Firm DC IOLTA

IOLTA Exceptions / Rule 1.15

“ . . . when the lawyer is otherwise compliant with the contrary mandates of a tribunal . . . ”

If you are licensed, principally practice & are IOLTA compliant in another jurisdiction. Rule 1.15(b)

“ . . . unless the client gives informed consent to a different arrangement.” Rule 1.15(e)

The problem with “informed consent to a different arrangement”

The Rules don't explain it

There is no case that sets out the elements

After In Re Mance, Disciplinary Counsel is waiting on the right set of facts to establish the elements. It may be coming in In Re Ponds

Waiver of entrustment is high risk conduct

What we think we know about informed consent to waiver of entrustment

Orally & in writing the client agrees that:

1. Advance fees are normally entrusted;
2. Un-entrusted fees are treated as the lawyer's property;
3. Lawyer must explain the service & do the work to earn the fee;
4. Unearned fee must be returned to the client;
5. Un-entrusted fees are subject to the lawyer's creditors.

Include supporting data

The law firm bank statement

Should only be opened or accessible by you;

Should be examined regularly;

Never delegate this task regardless of how big, busy & successful you become;

Only delegate financial duties after your thorough review of the bank statement;

Reconcile the bank statement with your trust account ledger & client ledgers.

LEGAL COUNSEL NEEDED!!!

Paris Jun

August 18, 2015, 11:46 PM

Dear Counsel,

My name is Paris Jun. I am contacting your firm in regards to a divorce settlement with my ex husband (Michael Jun) who resides in your jurisdiction. I am currently on assignment in Japan. We had a court agreement for him to pay $578,000.00 plus legal fees. He has only paid me $78,000.00USD since.

I am hereby seeking your firm to represent me in collecting the balance from him. He has agreed already to pay me the balance but it is my belief that a Law firm like yours is needed to help me collect this payment from my ex-husband or litigate this matter if he fails to pay as promised.

Sincerely,
Paris Jun

IOLTA eligible funds . . .

- Must be held in an approved IOLTA bank;
- Are funds that are nominal in amount, or,
 - Held for a short period of time;
- Such that effort to administer "consumes" interest income.
- Example of an account name: Daniel M. Mills DC IOLTA Account;
- Interest goes to the DC Bar Foundation for pro bono legal services.

IOLTA Program Data

Trust Account Records

- What are you required to keep? Complete records - Rule 1.15(a);
- How long? . . . for a period of five years after termination of the representation.
Rule 1.15(a);
- But is it ever safe to destroy trust account records when there is no statute of limitation on a disciplinary complaint?

Complete records?

- What are complete records of a trust account transaction?
- If Bar Counsel cannot figure it out from your records, then your records are not complete.
- In re Donald A. Clower, 831 A.2d 1030, DCCA 2003.

- “Complete records” tell the full story of how the lawyer handled the money and whether the lawyer followed the Rules;
- If the records show what happened and that you complied with the Rules, then they are complete;
- “The reason for requiring complete records is so that any audit of the attorney’s handling of clients funds by Bar Counsel can be completed even if the attorney or the client, or both, are not available.” In re Clower at 1034.

What is ODC's expectation for complete records in a contingency fee matter?

ODC wants to see the underlying documentation for every entry on the recovered fund (settlement) distribution sheet.

- The fee agreement determines how and when you earn the fee

When does a flat fee go into the operating account?

- When the work is done and the fee is earned.
- If a flat fee is paid after the work is performed, it goes into the operating account.

Availability - What's that?

- Flat fee is generally not an engagement retainer (classic definition)
- Engagement retainer refers to availability, if required

Attorney for Software Businesses, Former SaaS Sales Leader.

It's officially been 18 months since I went full time running my law practice. Here are 6 things I have learned:

1. Being in a niche is good. Doing a group of specific things for a specific type of client REALLY well can be better than doing a bunch of things kind of well. I focus on transactional law for software companies.
2. Not all types of marketing/advertising works for everyone. For example, my clients aren't looking for my services on Facebook and Instagram. They're Googling, asking colleagues, or looking on LinkedIn.
3. Educating people is key - through content, webinars, or podcasts. Share knowledge to build trust.
4. Stand firm in your worth - prospective clients will come and try to negotiate down rates and claim they're getting a better deal elsewhere - but you are better served holding your ground. Those looking for deals aren't going to be great clients.
5. My best, most consistent clients have come to me organically - through word of mouth, or just finding my content in Google or LinkedIn.
6. Mental health is really important. I knew this before, but the stresses of being an entrepreneur are amplified in a pandemic. Meditate, seek therapy, and do what you can to maintain your inner peace.

The lessons keep on coming, and I keep on learning. Onward!

Defending executives and businesses in federal criminal investigations and business...

I'm going to let you in on a little secret. <whispers> It isn't very hard to start your own law firm. Here's all you need:

1. A computer
2. A domain name for email and website
3. A website (use a template to start)
4. Malpractice insurance
5. A corporate entity
6. An operating and IOLTA account
7. Basic software (Office365/G Suite; Adobe)
8. A telephone number

That's it.

I'm exaggerating a bit, of course, but the logistics of starting a law firm are easier than ever. Post-pandemic, you definitely do not need an office.

Of course, there is one very important thing you'll also need: confidence. A lot of it. You need to be confident that you can bring in clients. Maybe you have already had success as your prior firm. (I didn't.) Or maybe you are just sure that someone somewhere will hire you. (I was.)

If you need a pep talk to take the plunge, get in touch.
