

Training Program Fee Waiver Policy

The DC Bar Pro Bono Center is committed to making our training programs accessible while maintaining the resources necessary to provide high-quality, impactful content. To support participation from those serving the public interest, we offer a limited number of fee waivers for eligible individuals.

Eligibility

- D.C. Nonprofit Legal Service Providers (LSPs): Eligible for up to two (2) fee waivers per training per organization.
- D.C. Law Students: Students interested in public interest or pro bono work may be eligible upon request. A total of 5 scholarships will be available for D.C. Law Students per training.

How to Apply

Submit the Fee Waiver Request Form at least 10 business days before the training.

Additional Notes

- Waivers cannot be applied retroactively
- Additional participants beyond the two-waiver limit per organization must pay the standard registration fee
