

Candidate Statement

The D.C. Bar's core purpose is to "enhance access to justice, improve the legal system, and empower lawyers to achieve excellence." As a Director at Jackson and Campbell, PC, I work to make it easier for my clients to manage their exposure to risk and provide guidance that helps improve their business. I bring that same problem-solving skill set to my pro bono services that focus on assisting community groups and members of the armed forces. In today's climate, the easy thing to do is self-focus and worry about one's own career and inner circle. But I believe now is the time for experienced and talented attorneys who can give back to make it a priority to do so. If elected, I am committed to using my experience to help the Bar continue the pursuit of its mission of serving the members so they can serve the community.
