

MARK L. GOLDSTONE

Mark Goldstone is a sole practitioner with over 35 years of experience defending clients charged with civil disobedience offenses during protests. The protests have concerned issues such as anti-war, anti-torture, anti-death penalty, housing, immigration, LGBTQ+ rights, religious freedom and homelessness, and have taken place at the White House, the US Capitol, and the Supreme Court. Mark has represented groups such as ACT UP, Fire Drill Fridays, Greenpeace, Occupy DC, Poor People's Campaign, and United We Dream. Mark is a graduate of Temple Law School and Lafayette College.