

Statement of Noah Brozinsky
Candidate for Steering Committee
Arts, Entertainment, Media and Sports Law Community

Traveling by statistically improbable accidents—Reddit’s front page, Westlaw’s rabbit holes, Wikipedia’s “random page” algorithm, the deluge of media I consume daily, and more—I treat myself to research safaris, opening dozens of tabs, becoming fluent in all manner of subjects because, as my friends say, I’m an information sponge. I care deeply about universal access to these and similar sources of knowledge. I wish to bring this polymathic enthusiasm to bear as your new Steering Committee member.

I hope to steer the committee toward informative discussions on burgeoning issues in the area of defamation law, access to media, and the always-burgeoning business of sports media law.
